This week's Sunday@Home Sermon and Resources

Hi Church Family!

As I write this letter I do so as a proud grandpa! Margie and I are delighted at the safe arrival of little Rosie Drew Peletier, born last night at 8.10pm, weighing in at 8lb 1ounce. All are safe and well and we give thanks to God for the miracle of new life and for every blessing. To be honest, I'm finding it very difficult to focus on anything else today!

With the easing of covid-19 restrictions this weekend, some are asking whether we'll be able to resume Sunday services. However, the new restrictions still only allow for a maximum of 100 people in our auditorium, so, given the size of our congregation it seems as though it may still be a while before we can all gather together for a Sunday celebration service. This coming Tuesday we'll be meeting together as a Ministry Leaders' team to prayerfully discuss what is now feasible for other ministries of the church within these new parameters.

Infuse Cafe and College

It's been so lovely to see our facility slowly coming back to life after being somewhat dormant for so many weeks. College staff and students are back on site and Infuse Cafe has been a hive of activity this week. We've also loved seeing so many familiar faces at the cafe, as people stop by for coffee or for lunch. There's a '$10 eggs on toast and coffee' special this Saturday only – that's something to look forward to!

Sunday@home

We're blessed this Sunday to have Graham Mabury sharing with us on the topic of 'Thanking God in Uncertain Times,' with a focus on Philippians 4:6. I hope you'll take the time this weekend to sit down with your connect group, your family, or even just on your own, to worship the Lord and to focus on what He is saying to us together this week.

SaturdayNight@Cooby

And for our Coolbellup Campus family, Peter Christofides' Saturday night message will be on the topic, "Living in the Kingdom of God." His text is Acts 28:30-31, for those who would like to do some pre-reading in preparation.

A Word in Season

I know that many people continue to be encouraged by our weekly Word in Season devotion. Jonathan Anthony continues to do an amazing job leading our Creative Ministries Team and guiding our Missional Links ministry. To listen to his devotion for this week, click here.

Virtual Foyer

For those who are particularly missing that cuppa in the foyer on a Sunday morning, we have the next best thing with our virtual foyer – a chat with Mike Miles from 11.00am via this Zoom Link.

Glenn and Liz Black

Don't forget that while the Black's are back from Thailand, they'd love to come to share with your Connect Group, either in person or via Zoom. You can email them through this link.

I'll sign off this letter by continuing the 8/1 theme of my opening paragraph! Psalm 8:1 says, "O Lord, our Lord, how majestic is your name in all the earth! You have set your glory in the heavens. Through the praise of children and infants you have established a stronghold against your enemies."

The Lord is so good! Have a blessed week.
